**Dear [Friend's Name],****

I hope this letter finds you in good spirits! I wanted to tell you about my recent adventure in space. Last weekend, I built a rocket ship out of cardboard and flew all the way to Mars!

On Mars, I discovered colorful aliens who loved to dance. They taught me their special space moves, and we had an intergalactic dance party! What do you think the aliens would look like on Mars? I imagined them with three eyes and rainbow-colored skin!

I also found sparkling meteors that you could use to make special wishes. If you could wish for anything while on Mars, what would you wish for?

I can't wait to hear about your adventures, whether on Earth or in your imagination!

Blast off soon,

**Dear [Friend's Name],****

Greetings from the jungle! I wish you were here with me on my exciting expedition. Yesterday, I spotted a tall giraffe named Georgie who loves to eat leaves from the highest trees!

While trekking through the jungle, I also met a cheeky monkey who stole my banana! It made me laugh so hard. If you were here, what animal would you like to meet?

I can't wait to share more stories about my jungle adventures. Let's explore the wild together one day!

Swinging away,

**Dear [Friend's Name],****

Happy winter! I've been having so much fun in the snow. Yesterday, I built the largest snowman ever, and I named him Frosty!

We had a snowball fight, and I won, of course! If you could design your ultimate snow fort, what would it look like? I want to add a slide and a secret entrance!

I hope you're enjoying winter as much as I am. Can't wait to hear all about your snowy adventures!

Warm hugs,
