Dear Members of the Parole Board,

Subject: Support for Parole Grant for [Inmate's Name]

I am writing this letter to express my support for the parole application of [Inmate's Name], who is currently incarcerated at [Prison Name]. I have known [him/her/them] for [duration] and have witnessed [his/her/their] growth and commitment to rehabilitation.

[In this paragraph, describe your relationship with the inmate, any positive changes you have observed, and relevant experiences that showcase their character.]

I believe that [Inmate's Name] has taken significant steps towards personal improvement and has demonstrated remorse for [his/her/their] past actions. [You may also include any programs they have completed, skills learned, or contributions made during their time in prison.]

I kindly urge the board to consider granting [Inmate's Name] parole. [He/She/They] has a strong support network awaiting on the outside, including [mention any family, friends, or community connections that will assist the inmate's transition].

Thank you for your attention to this important matter.

Sincerely,
