Dear [Recipient's Name],

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to formally invite you to stay with me in the [City/Region] of [Country], as you consider applying for the BNO visa.

As an individual who resides in [Country] and is aware of your current situation, I believe that this opportunity will provide you with the chance to begin anew and contribute positively to our community.

During your stay, I will ensure you have accommodation and the necessary support to ease your transition. You are welcome to stay with me at my home located at [Your Address] for the duration of your visa application process.

Please feel free to reach out if you require any further information or assistance in your application. I genuinely look forward to welcoming you and supporting you through this journey.

Best regards,
