Dear [Scholarship Committee Members],

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to formally appeal the decision regarding my application for the BWI scholarship. I am grateful for the opportunity to apply, and I appreciate the time and effort that the committee invests in reviewing applications.

Unfortunately, I was recently informed that my application was not selected for funding. I understand that there are many qualified candidates, but I would like to provide additional context regarding my situation.

[Briefly explain your circumstances and any new information that may have come to light since your application submission. This could include changes in financial status, personal challenges, or additional achievements that highlight your eligibility.]

I am deeply committed to my education and pursuing my career goals, and the BWI scholarship would significantly alleviate my financial burden. I have [mention any relevant academic achievements, extracurricular activities, or community service that underscores your qualifications]. I respectfully request that you reconsider my application in light of this new information. I would be grateful for any opportunity to discuss my appeal further.

Thank you for your time and consideration. I look forward to your response.

Sincerely,
