

[Your Name]
[Your Address]
[City, State, Zip Code]
[Email Address]
[Phone Number]
[Date]

[Recipient Name]
[Recipient Address]
[City, State, Zip Code]

Dear [Recipient Name],

Subject: Child Custody Dispute

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to formally address the ongoing child custody dispute concerning our child, [Child's Name], born on [Child's Date of Birth]. It is essential for us to reach an amicable resolution that prioritizes the best interests of our child and ensures they have a stable and loving environment.

1. Introduction of Concerns

In light of recent events, I have concerns regarding the current custody arrangement, specifically [briefly explain your concerns]. It is vital for the well-being of [Child's Name] that we discuss this matter thoroughly.

2. Proposed Custody Arrangement

After careful consideration, I propose the following custody arrangement:

- Primary Custody: [Specify which parent will have primary custody and the reasons]
- Visitation Schedule: [Outline proposed visitation days and times for the non-custodial parent]
- Decision-Making: [Specify how decisions regarding education, health, and welfare will be made]

3. Supporting Evidence

To support my position, I can provide evidence that demonstrates [mention any relevant factors such as stability of your home, school performance, etc.]. I believe this evidence will show that the proposed arrangement is in [Child's Name]'s best interests.

4. Willingness to Negotiate

I understand that this is a sensitive matter, and I am open to discussing alternatives that might work for both of us. I truly believe that collaborating is essential in finding a resolution that benefits [Child's Name].

5. Request for Meeting

I would like to propose a meeting to discuss this matter at your earliest convenience. Please let me know your available dates and times, and I will do my best to accommodate.

6. Conclusion

I am hopeful that we can work together to resolve this custody dispute amicably. It is paramount for [Child's Name] to feel secure and loved, regardless of our differences. Thank you for considering my proposals, and I look forward to your prompt response.

Sincerely,
[Your Name]