Dear [Recipient Name],

Subject: DKIM Compliance for Marketing Campaigns

We are writing to inform you about our commitment to ensuring DKIM (DomainKeys Identified Mail) compliance in our email marketing campaigns. As part of our strategy to maintain high-quality communication and uphold the integrity of our brand, we have implemented DKIM authentication for our outgoing email messages.

Our DKIM implementation involves the following key aspects:

1. Domain Authentication: All emails sent from our domain ([yourdomain.com]) are signed with a unique DKIM signature, verifying that the message is indeed from us and has not been altered during transmission.
2. Email Deliverability: By using DKIM, we are improving our email deliverability rates and helping to reduce the likelihood of our communications being flagged as spam.
3. Best Practices: We comply with industry best practices regarding email marketing, including obtaining explicit consent from our recipients to receive marketing communications from us.

We believe that these measures enhance our relationship with our contacts and ensure a positive experience with our brand. If you have any questions regarding our DKIM implementation or our email marketing practices, please feel free to reach out to us at [contact email] or [contact phone number].

Thank you for being a valued part of our community.

Sincerely,
