Dear [Teacher's Name],

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to express my gratitude for your support and dedication as my English teacher this year. Your passion for literature and writing has greatly inspired me.

I have particularly enjoyed [mention a specific lesson, book, or project]. It has [explain how it helped you or changed your perspective]. Your feedback has been invaluable, and I appreciate the time you take to help each student succeed.

Thank you once again for your hard work and commitment. I look forward to continuing to learn and grow under your guidance.

Sincerely,
