Dear [Recipient's Name],

As the flickering candles of our Epiphany celebration illuminate our homes, I am filled with joy and gratitude to share this special occasion with you. The twinkling lights and the delicious aromas of traditional dishes remind us that this is a time for reflection, gratitude, and togetherness.

In the spirit of Epiphany, I have been inspired by the themes of revelation and discovery. Just as the Magi followed the star to find their path, I hope we can all find our light and purpose in the coming year.

Let us gather to reflect on the blessings of the past year and to share our hopes for the future. I invite you to join me for a festive celebration on [Date] at [Time] at my home. We will enjoy delicious food, share stories, and create new memories together.

Wishing you countless blessings and a bright new year filled with love and light.

Warm regards,
