

Dear [Recipient's Name],
As the dawn of Epiphany breaks,
A tapestry of light unfolds,
With starry whispers in the wake,
Of mysteries that time beholds.
In every heart, a flicker glows,
A glow ignited by love's embrace,
Through trials faced and shadows close,
We find our way, we seek His grace.
The gifts we share, like offerings rare,
Gold of kindness, frankincense of care,
Myrrh of moments both sweet and deep,
In this season, our souls we keep.
May divinity's light guide your way,
As we walk this journey, hand in hand,
With hope and joy to light the day,
In our hearts, together we stand.
Wishing you peace on this sacred path,
Warmth in your spirit, love in your laugh.
With love,
[Your Name]
