Subject: Equitable Distribution Settlement Proposal

Dear [Recipient's Name],

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to propose a settlement regarding the equitable distribution of assets and liabilities stemming from our recent separation. After careful consideration and evaluation of our shared assets, I believe the following terms would be fair and beneficial for both parties:

1. Real Estate:

- [Detail the property, including addresses and value, and propose how it will be divided or sold.]

2. Bank Accounts:

- [Specify the bank accounts to be divided and the proposed distribution of funds.]

3. Retirement Accounts:

- [Outline any retirement accounts and suggest how these should be divided.]

4. Personal Property:

- [List significant personal property items and how you propose to divide them.]

5. Debts:

- [Identify any shared debts and propose a plan for payment and distribution.]

6. Other Assets:

- [Include any additional assets not previously listed and your proposed handling.]

I believe this proposal represents a fair resolution and facilitates a clean break, allowing us both to move forward. I am open to discussing these terms further and am willing to consider any suggestions or adjustments you may have.

Please review this proposal at your earliest convenience, and I look forward to your response.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
