Dear [Judge's Name],

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to express my sincere remorse for my actions that led to my felony conviction in [case number or date of conviction].

I fully acknowledge the impact of my behavior on the victims, my family, and the community. I regret the pain and disruption I caused and take full responsibility for my actions. During my time in [jail/prison], I have reflected deeply on my choices and have committed myself to personal growth and rehabilitation.

I understand that my past cannot be changed, but I am determined to make amends. I have participated in [mention any programs, counseling, or education], which have helped me gain insight into my actions and develop skills to avoid similar mistakes in the future.

Thank you for considering my letter. I hope to prove that I have learned from my past and that I am capable of being a positive member of society.
