Re: Support Letter for [Defendant's Name] - Case No. [Case Number]

Dear [Judge's Name],

I am writing to express my support for [Defendant's Name] in regard to their felony conviction case. I have known [him/her/them] for [duration of time] and have always found [him/her/them] to be [describe positive traits - e.g., honest, hardworking, devoted family member].

During the time I have known [Defendant's Name], I have witnessed [him/her/them] [briefly describe positive actions or behaviors that demonstrate character]. This has persuaded me that the actions leading to this conviction do not reflect [his/her/their] true character.

[Defendant's Name] has expressed deep remorse for [his/her/their] actions and is committed to making amends. I believe that [he/she/they] is capable of positive change and would benefit significantly from opportunities for rehabilitation rather than punitive measures.

I respectfully urge you to consider [Defendant's Name]'s character and commitment to improving [his/her/their] life when making your decision.

Thank you for considering my perspective.

Sincerely,
