Dear [Friend's Name],

I can't believe the day has finally come for you to pack up and move to [New Location]. It feels like just yesterday we were [mention a fun memory or inside joke].

I'm really going to miss our hangouts, late-night talks, and all the spontaneous adventures we had together. You've been such an incredible friend, and I'm so thankful for all the memories we've created.

Even though you're moving away, I'm excited for this new chapter in your life! Make sure to keep me updated on all your new adventures. I'm definitely planning to visit soon, and we'll explore [mention a place in the new location you want to visit together].

Take care, stay in touch, and don't forget about me!

Wishing you all the best,
