Hey [Friend's Name],

I hope you're doing well! I've been thinking about our bond and wanted to bring up something a little different. I'd like to propose a friends with benefits situation between us. I feel like we have a great connection, and I think it could be fun without any complications.

I'm all for keeping things light and casual, with clear communication to ensure we're both on the same page. I think we both understand what we want, and it could be a great way to explore that without any pressure. Let me know what you think! No worries if you're not interested, just thought I'd put it out there.

Catch you later!
