Dear [Recipient Name],

Subject: Submission of FX Trading License Application

I am writing to formally submit my application for an FX trading license as required by [regulatory authority/organization name]. Attached to this letter, you will find all necessary documents including:

1. Completed application form
2. Proof of identity and financial background
3. Business plan outlining trading strategies
4. Risk management procedures
5. Compliance framework

I believe my experience in the financial markets and the thorough preparation in my application will meet the expectations required for the issuance of the FX trading license.

Should you need any additional information or clarification, please do not hesitate to contact me. I appreciate your consideration and look forward to your response.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
