Dear [Recipient Name],

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to propose a foreign exchange (FX) commission partnership that I believe will be mutually beneficial for both [Recipient Company] and [Your Company].

As you are aware, the FX market presents unique opportunities for businesses to maximize profits while managing currency risk effectively. Our firm specializes in providing comprehensive FX solutions tailored to our clients' specific needs, and we are confident that a collaboration with [Recipient Company] could enhance your currency risk management strategies and overall profitability.

We propose a commission structure that aligns our interests, where we would charge a competitive rate for each transaction executed through our services. We believe that this structure not only incentivizes efficiency but also fosters a long-term partnership based on transparency and shared success.

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss this proposal further and explore how we can work together to achieve our common goals. Please let me know your availability for a meeting or call.

Thank you for considering this proposal. I look forward to your response.

Warm regards,
