Dear [Recipient's Name],

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to express my thoughts and feelings regarding my recent GCSE exam results received on [date of results].

I was pleased to achieve [list specific grades and subjects] and am grateful for the support and guidance provided by my teachers and peers throughout the course.

I am particularly interested in [mention any future plans, such as further education or career aspirations], and I believe these results will help pave the way for my next steps.

Thank you once again for all the support our school has provided. I look forward to continuing my education and pursuing my goals.

Warm regards,
