Dear [Patient's Name],

Subject: Advisory on HCG Testing

We are writing to inform you about your recent Human Chorionic Gonadotropin (HCG) test results.

Test Overview:

HCG is a hormone produced during pregnancy. Testing for HCG can help determine pregnancy status or monitor certain health conditions.

Results Interpretation:

- Positive Result: Indicates the presence of HCG, suggesting pregnancy.
- Negative Result: Indicates no detectable HCG levels, suggesting a non-pregnant state.
- Abnormal Levels: May require additional testing or follow-up.

Next Steps:

- If your results are positive and you are pregnant, consider scheduling an appointment to discuss prenatal care options.
- If you have an abnormal level, we recommend a follow-up consultation with our healthcare provider.

Please feel free to contact our office if you have any questions or need further assistance.

Sincerely,
