Dear [Recipient's Name],

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to formally invite you to join me in [Country] as I navigate the immigration application process.

Your presence would be invaluable during this time, as I seek to [briefly state your purpose, e.g., achieve residency, start a new life, etc.].

I believe that having you here will not only provide me with support but also ensure that I meet all requirements set forth by the immigration authorities. I will be applying for [specific visa or residency type], and your assistance would be greatly appreciated.

Please let me know if you can make it, as I would like to discuss more details and answer any questions you may have.

Thank you for considering my invitation. I look forward to your response.

Warm regards,
