Activity 1: Friendly Letter to a Classmate

- Materials Needed: Paper, colored pencils, envelopes

- Instructions:

1. Introduce the concept of a friendly letter.
2. Discuss the format: date, greeting, body, closing, and signature.
3. Have students write a letter to a classmate, sharing something fun they did over the weekend.
4. Encourage them to decorate their letters with drawings.
5. Collect letters and deliver them to classmates.

Activity 2: Create a Letter to a Story Character

- Materials Needed: Storybooks, paper, crayons

- Instructions:

1. Read a familiar storybook aloud to the class.
2. Discuss the main characters and their traits.
3. Ask students to write a letter to their favorite character, asking questions or giving compliments.
4. Students can illustrate their letters with scenes from the story.

Activity 3: Postcard to a Family Member

- Materials Needed: Postcard templates, markers

- Instructions:

1. Prepare blank postcard templates.
2. Discuss what a postcard is and its layout.
3. Each student picks a family member and writes a short postcard about their day at school.
4. Students can draw a picture on the front side of the postcard.

Activity 4: Letter to Santa

- Materials Needed: Stationery, stickers

- Instructions:

1. Discuss the tradition of writing to Santa Claus.
2. Students write a letter to Santa, telling him what they want for Christmas.
3. Encourage them to include a thank you.
4. Decorate letters with festive stickers.

Activity 5: Thank You Letters

- Materials Needed: Thank you card templates, stamps

- Instructions:

1. Talk about the importance of gratitude.
2. Have students write thank you letters to someone special (teacher, parent, friend).
3. Discuss what they are thankful for.
4. Decorate the cards and discuss how to send them.

Conclusion:

- Review what students learned about writing letters.

- Display their letters in the classroom or create a "letter wall" for everyone to see!
