Dear Admissions Committee,

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to formally appeal the decision regarding my application to Khan Academy for [specific program or course]. I appreciate the time and effort the committee has put into reviewing my application, and I respect the decision that was made. However, I would like to provide additional information that I believe is pertinent to my admission consideration.

[Explain reasons for appeal: highlight any relevant experiences, achievements, or circumstances that may not have been included in your initial application. Be concise and focus on key points that strengthen your case.]

I am passionate about [specific subjects or career goals], and I believe that the resources and educational philosophy at Khan Academy align perfectly with my aspirations. [Mention how attending Khan Academy would impact your personal and academic development.]

Thank you for considering my appeal. I am hopeful that my additional information will provide a clearer picture of my potential and commitment to succeed at Khan Academy. I appreciate the opportunity to present my case and look forward to your response.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
