Dear [Recipient's Name],

Subject: Allegation of Lying Under Oath

I am writing to formally address an incident that occurred during [specific court case or proceeding] on [date]. It has come to my attention that [Name of the individual who allegedly lied], during their testimony, provided information that appears to be inconsistent with available evidence.

The statements made by [Name] regarding [specific details of the testimony] were alarming due to [explain the discrepancies briefly]. I believe that this could constitute perjury under [relevant statutes or laws], and it is important for the integrity of the court that this matter is resolved appropriately.

I respectfully request that an investigation be initiated into this matter to ensure that the truth is upheld and that justice is served. Should you require any additional information or documentation to assist in your investigation, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Thank you for your attention to this serious issue.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
