Dear [Recipient's Name],
In the quiet of the night,
When the stars align just right,
I hear the whispers of my heart,
A melody that sets us apart.
With every beat, you are my tune,
A symphony beneath the moon,
Your laughter dances on the air,
A song of love beyond compare.
In this vast world, it's you I seek,
The words I write, both soft and sweet,
Together we compose our fate,
As love's refrain will never wait.
Yours in harmony,
