Dear [Team Name] Management,

I am writing to express my intent to enter into a contract with the [Team Name] for the upcoming NBA season. As a committed and passionate athlete, I believe my skills and dedication can significantly contribute to the team's success.

Throughout my career, I have demonstrated [briefly mention your achievements, stats, or key strengths, e.g., points per game, assists, defense]. My experience with [mention previous teams or relevant experiences] has prepared me to face the challenges of playing at the highest level and thrive within [Team Name]'s competitive environment. I am excited about the prospect of being part of [Team Name] and working with the coaching staff and my fellow teammates to achieve our goals. I believe that together, we can strive for excellence and make a significant impact in the league.

Thank you for considering my letter of intent. I look forward to discussing this opportunity further and hopefully joining [Team Name] in the near future.

Sincerely,
