Dear [Recipient Name],

I, [Your Full Name], am writing to formally express my intent to enter the NBA Draft for the upcoming season. After careful consideration of my current development and future aspirations, I believe this is the right step in pursuing my professional basketball career.

Throughout my time at [Your College/University Name], I have dedicated myself to improving my skills and contributing to my team's success. I am grateful for the experiences and knowledge I have gained, and I feel prepared to take on the challenges of the professional level.

I appreciate the support of my coaches, teammates, and family, which has been instrumental in my growth as a player. I am excited about the possibility of being selected and given the opportunity to showcase my abilities on a larger platform.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the possibilities ahead as I pursue my dreams in the NBA.

Sincerely,
