Dear Coach [Coach's Last Name],

I am writing to formally express my intent to enter the upcoming NFL Draft. After careful consideration and discussions with my family and mentors, I believe this is the right time for me to take the next step in my football career.

Throughout my college years at [University/College Name], I have worked diligently to develop my skills and contribute to our team's success. I am proud of my accomplishments, including [mention any notable achievements, statistics, or awards]. I am eager to showcase my abilities at the professional level and am committed to continuing my growth as a player.

I sincerely appreciate the support and guidance you have provided during my time in college. I am excited about the possibility of working with you and the team in the future.

Thank you for considering me as a potential addition to [Team Name]. I look forward to the opportunity to prove myself and contribute to the success of the organization.

Sincerely,
