Subject: Personal Statement for NRI Visa Application

Dear Sir/Madam,

I am writing to express my intent to apply for a Non-Resident Indian (NRI) visa. My name is [Your Full Name], and I was born in [Place of Birth] on [Date of Birth]. I currently reside in [Country of Residence] and hold [specific passport information, e.g., passport number and nationality].

I wish to travel to India to [state purpose: visit family, attend a family function, conduct business, etc.], and my proposed travel dates are from [start date] to [end date].

As an NRI, I have maintained my connections to India by [mention any ties to India, such as family, property, investments, or cultural connections]. My intention is to ensure that I comply with all the requirements for NRI status and to contribute positively during my visit. I have attached the necessary documents required for the visa application, including [list any relevant documents such as proof of NRI status, financial statements, etc.].

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to your favorable response.

Sincerely,

[Your Signature (if sending a physical letter)]
