

New Zealand Citizenship Application Narrative Example

Applicant Name: John Doe

Date: October 15, 2023

Application Number: NZC123456

Personal Background:

I, John Doe, was born on March 12, 1990, in Toronto, Canada. I moved to New Zealand in January 2015 to pursue my Master's degree in Environmental Science at the University of Auckland. Since then, I have made New Zealand my home.

Connection to New Zealand:

Over the past eight years, I have built strong connections within my community. I currently live in Wellington and work as an Environmental Consultant with EcoSolutions NZ. My role involves collaborating with local governments and businesses to implement sustainable practices that benefit our environment and society.

Community Involvement:

I actively participate in community events, including beach clean-ups and tree planting initiatives. I volunteer with the Wellington Citizen's Advice Bureau, where I provide support and resources to immigrants navigating the integration process. I have also joined the local sports club, where I play rugby, embracing Kiwi culture and cherishing the friendships I've formed.

Intention to Live in New Zealand:

My commitment to New Zealand is unwavering. I have purchased a home in Wellington and plan to raise my family here. I embrace the values of New Zealand's society, including diversity, inclusivity, and environmental stewardship.

Contribution to New Zealand:

Through my professional work, I contribute to New Zealand's sustainability goals and strive to protect its unique natural resources. I am passionate about fostering understanding and awareness about environmental issues within the community.

Conclusion:

I respectfully submit my application for New Zealand citizenship with the intent to fully embrace and contribute to the society that I have grown to love. I am grateful for the opportunities I have been given in New Zealand and hope to continue my journey here as a proud citizen.
