To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing this personal statement as part of my application for New Zealand citizenship. My name is [Your Full Name], and I was born on [Your Date of Birth] in [Your Place of Birth]. I have been a resident of New Zealand since [Your Date of Arrival] and have since made it my home.

My journey in New Zealand began when I [briefly describe how you arrived in New Zealand, including any relevant details about your visa status or reason for moving]. Over the years, I have embraced the Kiwi way of life and have actively contributed to my community. I currently work as [Your Job Title] at [Your Place of Employment], where I have [describe your role and contributions].

In addition to my professional life, I have engaged in several community activities, such as [mention any volunteer work, local clubs, or community service]. These experiences have allowed me to build meaningful relationships and further understand the values that New Zealand cherishes.

New Zealand's values of inclusivity, kindness, and respect resonate deeply with me, and I strive to uphold these principles in my daily life. I am committed to contributing positively to society and being an active member of my community.

I believe that obtaining New Zealand citizenship will allow me to deepen my commitment to this wonderful country and fully participate in its democratic processes. I am excited about the prospect of being able to vote and have a say in the future of New Zealand.

Thank you for considering my application for citizenship. I look forward to the opportunity to officially call myself a New Zealander and to continue contributing to the rich tapestry of this nation.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
