Dear PV Sindhu,

As your remarkable journey in badminton takes a new turn, I wanted to take a moment to express my heartfelt gratitude and admiration for everything you have accomplished.

Your dedication, perseverance, and sportsmanship have inspired not just aspiring athletes but also millions around the world. From your historic wins to your gracious demeanor, you have set a benchmark in sports that many will strive to achieve.

While your departure from competitive badminton is bittersweet, it also opens up new opportunities for you to pursue. We are excited to see how you will continue to inspire future generations in your next chapter.

Thank you for the memories, the inspiration, and for being a true champion. Wishing you all the best in your future endeavors!

Warm regards,
