Subject: Dispute Regarding Pyramid Scheme Involvement

Dear [Recipient's Name],

I am writing to formally dispute my involvement in what I believe to be a pyramid scheme associated with [Company Name]. I have recently come to understand that the business model promoted by your organization may violate legal and ethical standards.

I joined [Company Name] on [Date of Enrollment] and invested [Amount of Money] based on the promise of significant financial returns through recruitment of new members. Since then, I have observed the following concerning practices:

1. **Emphasis on Recruitment Over Product Sales**: The primary focus of the program has been on recruiting new participants rather than selling actual products or services.
2. **Minimal Product Value**: The products offered appear to be overpriced and primarily intended to qualify members for commissions, rather than offering real value to consumers.
3. **High Turnover Rates**: Many of the participants I have recruited have expressed dissatisfaction and have exited the program, resulting in significant financial losses.

In light of these observations, I am requesting a refund of my initial investment and any additional funds I contributed to this scheme.

Furthermore, I urge [Company Name] to reassess its business practices to ensure compliance with applicable laws regarding pyramid schemes.

Please find attached all relevant documentation supporting my claims. I expect a prompt response to this matter.

Thank you for your attention to this serious issue.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
