As you may know, the RDSP is a valuable savings tool that enables individuals with disabilities to save for their long-term financial well-being. With the potential for matching grants and bonds from the government, investing in an RDSP aligns perfectly with our goal of providing [Name of Beneficiary] with greater financial stability and independence.

I would like to request more information regarding the following:

1. Eligibility criteria for the RDSP
2. The process of setting up an account
3. Investment options available within the RDSP
4. Any government contributions and grants applicable

I am looking forward to your prompt response so that we can move forward in securing this important financial resource for [Name of Beneficiary].

Thank you for your assistance.

Sincerely,
