

**Template Example: Stylistic Elements in Rhetorical Letters****

---

**[Your Name]****

**[Your Address]****

**[City, State, Zip Code]****

**[Email Address]****

**[Date]****

**[Recipient Name]****

**[Recipient Title]****

**[Recipient Address]****

**[City, State, Zip Code]****

Dear [Recipient Name],

**1. Introduction: Establishing Ethos****

In light of recent events regarding [specific issue], I feel compelled to address you directly. As a [your position or expertise], I bring [your credentials or experiences] to this matter.

**2. Emotional Appeal (Pathos)****

Imagine a community where [describe a scenario that elicits emotion]. It is crucial we recognize the impact of our decisions on real lives, like [provide a personal story or hypothetical situation].

**3. Logical Reasoning (Logos)****

To support my argument, consider the statistics: [insert relevant data or evidence]. This clearly illustrates that [explain how this data supports your position].

**4. Call to Action****

I urge you to take a stand on [specific action you want them to take]. Together, we can [state the desired outcome] and foster [positive vision].

**5. Conclusion: Reiterating Ethos and Hope****

Thank you for considering my perspective. I am confident that your leadership can make a difference in [restate the issue]. I look forward to your response.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]

[Your Title/Organization]

---