Dear Admissions Committee,

I am writing to share my experiences that have shaped my character and aspirations as part of my application to the University of California. Throughout my high school years, I have been deeply involved in [specific activity or organization], where I [describe your role and responsibilities]. This experience taught me [what you learned or skills gained], which I believe will greatly contribute to my success at UC. Additionally, my volunteer work at [organization or event] exposed me to [describe what you did and the impact it had on you]. This opportunity reinforced my commitment to [relevant value or cause], further solidifying my desire to pursue [intended major or field of study] at UC. I also had the privilege of [describe any additional experience, such as internships, research, or projects], where I [explain what you did and the significance]. This experience ignited my passion for [specific subject or discipline], and I am eager to continue exploring this at UC. In conclusion, I am excited about the possibility of bringing my diverse experiences and insights to the University of California community. Thank you for considering my application.

Sincerely,
