Dear Admissions Committee,

I am writing to formally appeal the decision regarding my application for [specific program/degree] at the University of Arizona for the [year/semester]. I appreciate the time and effort the committee has put into reviewing my application, and I respect your decision; however, I believe there are compelling reasons and additional information that warrant reconsideration.

[Paragraph 1: Briefly explain your situation and the reasons for your appeal. Include any relevant details about your academic achievements, personal circumstances, or other factors that may have influenced your application.]

[Paragraph 2: Provide specific examples or evidence that supports your case. This might include updated grades, changes in your personal situation, or other accomplishments that align with the university's values and standards.]

[Paragraph 3: Express your continued interest in the University of Arizona and the specific program. Convey your passion for attending the university and how it aligns with your academic and career goals.]

Thank you for considering my appeal. I am hopeful for the opportunity to further discuss my application and provide any additional information if needed. I look forward to the possibility of joining the University of Arizona community.

Sincerely,
