Dear [Scholarship Committee's Name or "Scholarship Committee"],
I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to formally appeal the decision regarding my WNBA scholarship application submitted on [submission date]. After receiving the notification about my application status on [notification date], I have taken some time to reflect on the feedback provided and wish to present additional information that I believe may warrant reconsideration of my case.

[Briefly explain your situation and why you believe you deserve the scholarship. Include any new information or circumstances that may strengthen your appeal, such as academic achievements, athletic performance, community service, or personal challenges you have faced.]

I am truly passionate about pursuing my education and playing basketball at a high level, and this scholarship plays a crucial role in making that possible. I have been dedicated to both my academic and athletic pursuits, as shown by [mention specific achievements or experiences].

I kindly ask you to reconsider my application in light of this additional information. I appreciate your time and consideration and look forward to any opportunity to discuss my appeal further.

Thank you for your understanding.

Sincerely,
