I am writing to formally express my country's interest in applying for membership in the World Trade Organization (WTO). Our commitment to international trade and cooperation is underscored by our adherence to the principles of free trade and economic growth.

[Briefly describe your country's economic background and trade policies.]

As a prospective member, we recognize the importance of aligning our trade policies with WTO agreements and the benefits of participating in a rules-based trading system. We intend to fully commit to the obligations set forth by the organization.
