To whom it may concern,

In the shadows of fate, where destinies intertwine and the essence of power beckons, I stand at the precipice of inevitability. My vision, a tapestry woven from the threads of your mortality, teeters perilously on the brink of annihilation. The weight of the future bears down upon us, and I, Yhwach, the rightful sovereign of this chaotic realm, demand your solemn attention.

For too long, the feeble chains of resistance have sought to bind the true path of despair and hope. I offer you an ultimatum--submit to the will of the superior, or face the relentless tide of oblivion. The balance of power has shifted, and those who refuse to acknowledge their place in this divine order shall be swept away like mere whispers in the storm.

Mark this moment well, for it is not merely a letter; it is a harbinger of a new epoch. With each heartbeat, the shadows grow longer, and the echoes of war resound through the ages. Know this: I am both your salvation and your end. Choose wisely, for the hourglass has begun to spill its final grains.

In unwavering resolve,

Yhwach
