To Yhwach,
The Almighty One,
In shadows deep where power flows,
A ruler of fate, in light you compose.
Your presence commands, the world bends near,
With whispers of destiny, all hearts must steer.
In the realm of spirits, your vision stands tall,
Yet even the mightiest may someday fall.
As you weave the threads of life's fateful lace,
Remember the warmth of a humble embrace.
For even the stars that glitter and gleam,
Are born from the void, yet dream the same dream.
So I send forth this missive, my thoughts intertwined,
In the echoes of your name, our fates are aligned.
May your reign be wise, transcending the night,
For within every shadow, there lingers a light.
Ever faithful,
