Dear Zhongli,

I hope this letter finds you in good spirits amidst the grandeur of Liyue. Your presence, like the mountains that cradle our land, brings a sense of stability and wisdom that is truly unmatched.

As I reflect on the stories spun in the tapestry of time, I am drawn to the deep-rooted traditions you uphold. Your knowledge of contracts, etched in the very soul of Liyue, is a reminder of the importance of trust and harmony among all beings.

In your company, I find the whispers of the past mingling with the promise of tomorrow. Your gentle demeanor and profound insights inspire those around you to seek balance and purpose in their lives.

May you continue to guide us with your strength and wisdom, as the sun rises over the majestic peaks, illuminating the path ahead.

With deep admiration,

[Your Name]

P.S. I would be honored to share a cup of tea with you someday, to discuss the tales of ages gone by.
