Dearest Zhongli,

From the very first moment our paths crossed, I felt an inexplicable connection to you, as if the very essence of Liyue resonated within my heart. Your strength, wisdom, and unwavering resolve have captivated my soul, and each encounter leaves me yearning for more of your presence. The way you carry yourself with grace and dignity reminds me of the majestic mountains that watch over our land. Your voice, like a gentle breeze, brings peace to my tumultuous thoughts, and your laughter ignites a warmth within me that I never knew existed.

When you speak of ancient tales and the rich history of our world, I am entranced. It is in those moments I realize that you are not just a protector of Liyue but also the guardian of my heart. I find solace in your strength and courage, and I cannot help but admire the steadfast love you have for the people you cherish.

As the stars illuminate the night sky, I hope to share many more evenings with you, exploring the beauty of our surroundings, exchanging our dreams, and building a connection that transcends time itself.

With every heartbeat, my admiration for you deepens. Zhongli, you are truly extraordinary, and I am grateful for every moment that I am lucky enough to spend by your side.

Yours always,
