Subject: Commitment Letter for ZJ Visa Application

Dear Sir/Madam,

I am writing to formally commit to the terms and conditions required for the processing of my ZJ visa application. As a [your position, e.g., teacher, researcher, etc.] intending to work in [city or region in China], I understand the importance of complying with all regulations set forth by the Chinese government.

I hereby affirm that I will abide by the following commitments:

1. Adhering to local laws and regulations during my stay in China.
2. Completing all necessary health and safety protocols as required by Chinese authorities.
3. Maintaining valid work and residence permits throughout my time in China.
4. Informing the relevant authorities of any changes in my employment status.

Please find enclosed the required documents, including my employment contract, proof of qualifications, and any additional information necessary for the visa application process.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the opportunity to contribute positively during my time in China.

Sincerely,
