To Whom It May Concern,

Subject: Application for New Zealand Citizenship by Residency

I am writing to formally apply for New Zealand citizenship based on my residency status. I have been a resident of New Zealand since [Date of Residency] and have complied with all the residency requirements.

I was granted residence under [specific visa category, if applicable], and I have since established my life here, contributing to my community and integrating into New Zealand society. My [personal details or accomplishments, e.g., employment, community service, family connections] demonstrate my commitment to New Zealand.

I meet the following criteria for citizenship:

- I have lived in New Zealand for at least [number of years].
- I meet the character requirements as outlined by Immigration New Zealand.
- I have a sufficient understanding of the English language.

Enclosed with this letter are the following documents to support my application:

1. Copy of my Residence Permit
2. Proof of residency (e.g., utility bills, lease agreements)
3. Police clearance certificate
4. [Other relevant documents]

I appreciate your time and consideration of my application. I look forward to the opportunity to further contribute to New Zealand as a citizen.

Yours sincerely,
