Dear Members of the Parole Board,
Subject: Support for Parole of [Inmate's Full Name], TDCJ # [Inmate's Number]

I am writing to express my support for the parole of [Inmate's Full Name]. I have known [him/her/them] for [duration of acquaintance] and can attest to [his/her/their] character and the positive changes [he/she/they] has made during [his/her/their] time in prison.

[Provide a brief overview of your relationship with the inmate and any relevant experiences that highlight their character transformation.]

During [his/her/their] incarceration, I have observed [Inmate's Full Name] engage in various rehabilitative programs such as [list programs or activities]. These efforts demonstrate [his/her/their] commitment to personal growth and readiness to reintegrate into society.

I believe that granting parole to [Inmate's Full Name] would not only benefit [him/her/them] but also the community, as [he/she/they] has expressed a desire to contribute positively upon release. [Provide specific examples of plans or goals the inmate has post-parole.]

In conclusion, I kindly urge the board to consider [Inmate's Full Name]'s parole application favorably. Thank you for taking the time to read this letter of support.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
