Dear Honorable [Judge's Last Name],

I am writing to provide a personal impact statement regarding [Name of the Offender], who is scheduled for sentencing on [Sentencing Date]. I appreciate the court's consideration of the impact this situation has had on my life and the lives of others affected.

[Begin with a brief introduction about your relationship to the case or the offender.]

[Describe how the crime or situation has impacted you personally. Discuss emotional, financial, or social consequences and any changes in your daily life.]

[Include any specific examples or anecdotes that illustrate the impact of the crime. This might include how it affected your family, your work, or your mental health.]

[Express your thoughts on accountability and rehabilitation, if applicable. You may choose to discuss your hopes for the offender or any request for the court's considerations.]

Thank you for considering my testimony as part of the proceedings. I trust that you will take into account the profound effects this matter has had on my life and the lives of others.

Sincerely,
[Your Name]
