Dear Admissions Committee,

**Introduction****

Begin with a compelling opening that captures your interest in the program and your motivation for applying. Briefly introduce yourself and your academic background.

**Body Paragraph 1: Academic Achievements****

Discuss your academic achievements, relevant coursework, and any honors or awards that demonstrate your preparedness for the chosen program.

**Body Paragraph 2: Relevant Experiences****

Describe experiences (internships, research projects, work experience, volunteer work) that have contributed to your skills and knowledge in the field. Highlight specific examples that showcase your abilities and commitment.

**Body Paragraph 3: Personal Growth and Values****

Reflect on personal experiences that have shaped your character, values, and aspirations. Explain how these experiences have influenced your desire to study at UofT.

**Body Paragraph 4: Future Goals****

Outline your short-term and long-term goals. Explain how the program at UofT aligns with these goals and how you plan to contribute to the university community.

**Conclusion****

Wrap up your statement by reiterating your enthusiasm for the program. Thank the committee for considering your application and express your hope to join the UofT community.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
