Subject: Hardship Letter for VFW Visa Application

Dear [Recipient Name],

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to formally request your assistance regarding my VFW visa application. Due to unforeseen financial difficulties, I am currently experiencing significant hardship that I believe qualifies for consideration.

[Briefly explain your current situation, including specific financial challenges, job loss, medical issues, etc. Use clear and concise language to outline your circumstances.]

As a result of these challenges, I am struggling to meet the requirements for the visa and to cover related expenses. I have taken proactive steps to manage my situation, including [list any steps taken, such as seeking employment, financial counseling, etc.]. However, the burden remains overwhelming.

I respectfully request any available support, guidance, or flexibility regarding my application process. Your consideration in this matter would greatly aid in alleviating some of the stress that I am currently facing. Thank you for your attention to my situation. I look forward to your response and appreciate any aid you can provide.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
