To the Esteemed Inhabitants of Yharnam,

As I traverse the cobbled streets of this daunting city, shadows loom, and whispers of the past echo through the mist. I find myself compelled to pen this letter, seeking connection amidst the chaos.

In these haunting hours, I regard your steadfast spirit as a beacon of hope. The tales of courage and resilience inspire me to delve deeper into the mysteries that shroud Yharnam.

Should you find it in your heart to respond, I would be honored to hear your thoughts on the peculiar happenings that seem to engulf our nights. Together, we may shed light on the darkness.

Yours in solidarity,
