Dear [Recipient's Name],

I hope this letter finds you well and filled with warmth as the season of Yule approaches. As the days grow shorter and the air carries a hint of frost, I find myself reflecting on the joys of gathering with loved ones to celebrate this magical time of year.

I would be delighted to invite you to a cozy Yule Log evening at my home on [date] at [time]. We'll share stories, enjoy warm drinks, and indulge in some delicious treats while we light our very own Yule log. Let's make some merry memories, surrounded by twinkling lights and the comforting aroma of the season.

Please bring your favorite holiday story or a cherished recipe to share; I know we'll all love to hear about your traditions. Dress comfortably, and feel free to bring along a cozy blanket to snuggle under as we enjoy each other's company.

Looking forward to celebrating with you!

Warmest wishes,
